I authorize you to open other account(s) for me in person.

I authorize you to gather whatever credit, checking account and employment information you consider appropriate from time to time. Important Information About Procedure for Opening a New Account

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for Me: When I open an account, you will ask for my name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow you to identify me. You may also ask to see my driver's license or other identifying documents.

Request for Taxpayer Identification Number

Part I. - Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see Part I of "Specific Instructions" to Payer's Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification in the Account Agreement and Truth-In-Savings Disclosure. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN in "Specific Instructions" Part I.

Taxpayer Identification Number	OR	Employer Identification Number

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the chart for guidelines on "What Name and Number To Give the Requester."

Part II. - For U.S. Payee Exempt From Backup Withholding (See "Specific Instructions")

Part III. - Certification

Under the penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholdings, and
- I am a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien).

Certification Instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest or dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. Cross out item 3 and complete a W-8 BEN if you are not a U.S. person. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. (See "Specific Instructions")

Note: The Internal Revenue Service does not require your consent to any provision of this document other than the certification required to avoid backup withholding.
